

David Haslam

David joined Sport Oakville in 2009 as a director and Secretary, with a keen interest in sharing his background knowledge and experiences with Oakville's sport community.

As the current president of the Crusaders Rugby Club, David has served on the board for over six years that included responsibilities of fixtures, club captain and junior development. During his tenure as Junior Director, and as a coach, David helped the Crusaders, along with its junior program, grow to the largest in North America. David also championed the development of the club's infrastructure which included fundraising, the recruitment of volunteers and the training/certification of 100 coaches and referees. As President, David led the development of the Crusaders' Vision, Mission and Values, and the club's ten year strategic plan.

Through his children, David has also been involved with soccer, as a coach, and the Oakville Aquatics Club.
