

Ron Bidulka

Ron has been involved with Sport Oakville as a director since 2008 and Treasurer since 2009.

Professionally, Ron serves as the National Sports Industry Leader for Deloitte, a multi-national professional services firm. In this capacity, Ron has been involved in helping develop new sport infrastructure in Canada, including stadiums, arenas and aquatic facilities, and community recreation facilities, as well as advising/assisting organizing committees secure new multi-sport events for Canada (eg. 2015 PanAm Games, FIFA U-20 Men's Soccer Championships, 2010 Winter Olympics, etc)

Ron has extensive minor sport experience, both with Sport Oakville and the Oakville Hornets Girls Hockey Association, as well as 15+ years of professional experience dealing in many sport event and sport facility issues. He is regularly sought out to provide expert opinion on issues relating to sport, including doing television and radio interviews and speaking at sport industry conferences.